New Award

The Pastoral Award 2010 has been replaced in its entirety by the Pastoral Award 2020. There are a number of changes between those Awards and we will provide further information in the near future. It should also be noted that any unpaid entitlements (if any) from the 2010 Award carry forward to the 2020 Award. The new Award is available here.

Broadacre Farms, Dairies, and Feedlots remain covered in Part 6 of the Award, but the classification structure differs for these three groups. It is important to establish which classification applies to your type of work to establish the correct rate of pay as follows. Farm and Livestock Hand Classification Levels appear in Clause 31 (previously Clause 27) of the Award and a summary is;

The rate for overtime for casual employees is not double their ordinary casual rate. It is calculated by applying the 0% above to the fulltime rate.

Prior to establishing the correct wage rate, it is essential that the correct classification for each employee be established by referring to the classification structure.

ALLOWANCES

Allowances are prescribed in Clause 18 of the Award. There allowances known as the "all-purpose allowance" which are identified in 18.2 and are payable in addition to the wages rates above. These allowances are identified in subclause 18.2 which states;

- (a) All-purpose allowances: Allowances paid for all purposes are included in the rate of pay of an employee who is entitled to the allowance, when calculating any penalties or loadings or payment while they are on annual leave. The following allowances are paid for all purposes under this award:
 - leading hand allowance (clause 18.2(b)); and
 - first aid allowance (clause 18.2(c)).
- (b) Leading hands: A leading hand in charge of 2 or more people must be paid as follows:

In charge of	$ per week
2–6 employees	23.47
7–10 employees	27.35
11–20 employees	38.98
More than 20 employees	48.98

The allowance contained in clause 18.2(b)(i) will apply to part-time employees on a pro rata basis.

(c) First aid allowance

An employee appointed by their employer to perform first aid duty as required in addition to their usual duties, and holding a current recognised first aid qualification, such as one from St John Ambulance or similar body, must be paid an allowance of $2.86 per day.

Other allowances are as follows and are not included in the rate of pay of an employee who is entitled to the allowance, when calculating any penalties or loadings or payment while they are on annual leave.

(g) Protective clothing

- If the employer requires an employee to supply his or her own protective clothing, the employer must reimburse the employee for the cost of supplying the protective clothing.
- The provisions of clause 18.3(g)(i) do not apply where the protective clothing is paid for by the employer.
- Any protective clothing that is paid for by the employer remains the property of the employer.

(h) Charges for accommodation, meat, goods, and services

- If the employer provides an employee with living premises for the use of a "without keep" employee and the employee's household, the employer may charge an amount agreed between them in writing for the use of the premises and/or power supplied to the premises.
- The employer may charge to an employee:
 - the cost of goods or services supplied to the employee at the employee's request and paid for by the employer; and
 - o the cost of goods purchased by the employer for the employee at the employee's request.
- If the employer supplies an employee with meat, the employer may charge the employee an amount mutually agreed upon.
- If the employer sells groceries or stores to the employee, the prices charged must not exceed the cost price with carriage added.

Summary

The wage increases may be absorbed if you are paying above Award rates as long as the amount you pay is equal to or greater than the Award rate.
